

MASON LEBOURGEOIS

Pfc. Mason LeBourgeois, a former member of the Jeanerette National Guards, is stationed in England. A graduate of St. Peter's College, New Iberia, he has been in the service since the mobilization of the Guards in November of 1940.

JACK MARTIN

Jack Martin, a former member of the Jeanerette National Guards, is with a Military Police company somewhere in Italy. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin of Jeanerette, he has been in the service since the mobilization of the Guards in November of 1940.

JOE BARRILLEAUX

Pfc. Joe Barrilleaux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ovide Barrilleaux of near Jeanerette, is presently serving with the Infantry somewhere in Germany. He also participated in the French invasion. He has been in the service approximately four years and overseas two years.

ALVIN L. STANSBURY

Alvin L. Stansbury, son of Mrs. Robert Stansbury, Jeanerette, was in the Army stationed at Camp Forrest, Tenn., when he was discharged from the service. In the service for fifteen months, Stansbury was a State Highway Patrolman prior to his entrance into the service. He is the husband of the former Theresa Ann Battaglio of Franklin.

FELIX JOSEPH LYONS

MM 3/c Felix Joseph Lyons, son of Mrs. Felix Lyons, Henkle street, who was reported missing in action in the second battle of the Philippines on October 25, 1944. A graduate of the Jeanerette High School, Lyons entered the Navy on October 23, 1942, and was overseas one year. He had been in five battles and was on his sixth when his ship was lost.

C. C. MENDOZA

Captain C. C. Mendoza, son of Mr. L. A. Mendoza, of Jeanerette, is in the Medical Corps stationed at Pittsburg, Kansas. A graduate of the Franklin High School and Tulane University, Captain Mendoza interned at St. Vincent, Jacksonville, Florida, for two years and began practicing there until his enlistment into the Army Air Corps in September, 1942.